This is to certify that

Sharon Thorp

has been formally accredited at:

Strategic level: Operational Excellence in Education on 5th January 2026

Having attended and participated in Strategic level training and demonstrated evidence of impact from strategically leading on the implementation of OpEx tools and techniques to improve efficiencies across a group of schools or trusts, at this level.

As a result of Strategic accreditation, the individual can:

- Strategically lead on Operational Excellence principles and improvement processes across a group of schools or trusts (or more widely if an approved consultant)
- Develop and lead others (including strategic leaders) in OpEx activities across a group of schools or trusts.
